

UN Monitoring, Data Quality, and Learning Practice (Seed)

MEL and evidence expectations:

- Baselines should be established at project start and documented by source.
- Targets should be time-bound, realistic, and linked to intervention scope.
- Data quality checks should cover completeness, consistency, and verification trails.
- Periodic review cycles should translate findings into implementation adjustments.